Mindful Music Making: Socio-emotionally conscious activities that nurture the teacher and the student

In this workshop, we will explore activities that simultaneously move students towards mastery in national core arts standards and nurture their souls as artists and humans.

Music making should be joyful for both the teacher and student, especially as we move forward from a global crisis.

Our goal by the end of our time together is to have some tools to ground ourselves as educators as we continue to be important agents of healing and growth for our students
